

Global Project on the Implementation of Pollutant Release and Transfer Registers (PRTRs) as a tool for Persistent Organic Pollutants (POPs) reporting, dissemination and awareness raising for Belarus, Cambodia, Ecuador, Kazakhstan, Moldova and Peru

Second Steering Committee Meeting, Workshop on Estimation Techniques and PRTR Study Tour

5th – 8th March 2018

Lima – Peru

I. PRESENTATION

The Second Steering Committee Meeting, Workshop on Estimation Techniques and PRTR Study Tour is held within the framework of the Global Project on the Implementation of Pollutant Release and Transfer Registers as a tool for Persistent Organic Pollutants (POP's) reporting, dissemination and awareness raising for Belarus, Cambodia, Ecuador, Kazakhstan, Moldova and Peru.

This project aims to improve the access and accuracy of environmental data on persistent organic pollutants and other chemicals prioritized in the countries mentioned. It also seeks to sensitize and encourage the participation, in environmental issues, of the different actors, such as non-governmental organizations, citizens, students, among others; By implementing the national RETC's.

II. GENERAL OBJECTIVE

The objective is to bring the national project coordinators from Belarus, Cambodia, Ecuador, Kazakhstan, Moldova and Peru together in order to assess the progress made, challenges, future activities and build capabilities through training sessions and side visits co-organized by the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) and the Ministry of Environment of Peru (MINAM).

III. SPECIFIC OBJETIVES

- To assess and review the progress made in the implementation of project activities and development of national PRTRs in Belarus, Cambodia, Ecuador, Kazakhstan, Moldova and Peru.
- To strengthen capacities through face-to-face training session about the information requirements for PRTR and estimation methodologies.
- To learn more about the productive processes and environmental behavior of companies that report to the Peruvian PRTR through guided visits to their establishments.
